
Nick McKim

Greens Leader Nick McKim MP has worked hard to protect our beautiful estuaries and coastline, save Tassie's forests, for better public transport, to create new jobs in new industries and to keep the government honest.

If re-elected Nick pledges to keep working hard to represent the people of Franklin.

Adam Burling

Former Huon Valley councillor, forest campaigner, and current staffer for Senator Bob Brown, Adam has served his community for many years.

Adam helped to establish the Huon Valley Environment Centre, and is a strong community advocate for better health, education, and public transport.

Wendy Heatley

Wendy is a lawyer and public servant with an extensive background in leadership, legal, financial and innovations roles in the Federal and State Governments.

She has concentrated on improving public sector services throughout her career and was a high profile Greens candidate for the Legislative Council at the Pembroke by-election.

Mark Harrison

Mark, from Kingston, is an accountant and Officer Cadet with the Australian Army Reserve.

He will work to increase integrity and transparency in government processes and to assist Tasmanian businesses to achieve sustainable best practice.

Deborah Brewer

Researcher and educator Deborah, from Clifton Beach, is passionate about education and is committed to fixing the mess the Labor government has made of the post-year 10 education system in Tasmania.